

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY Nurse Practitioner (Dryden, ON)

We provide wholistic, primary health care through a range of options including prevention, assessment, diagnosis and treatment. Our client-centered, interprofessional teams include health professionals, educators and support workers representing both traditional Anishinaabe and contemporary models of care, and use medical and community development concepts.

The Nurse Practitioner functions independently within the Extended Class scope of practice, and in collaboration with members of the interprofessional team. This challenging and rewarding position provides care in culturally diverse community settings over a large geographic area.

NOTE: Anishinaabe traditional practices involve burning sacred medicines including tobacco, sweetgrass, sage and cedar within the work setting.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- current registration in the Extended Class with the College of Nurses of Ontario;
- demonstrated ability to work independently and be an effective team member; excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with a broad range of people including healthcare professionals, traditional people, leadership, and community members;
- understanding of wholistic health and well being, demonstrated cultural competencies and experience working in an Anishinaabe organization; ability to understand and speak Anishinaabemowin a definite asset;
- willingness and ability to travel, with significant community-based activity;
- valid drivers' license and own vehicle required; copy of current drivers' abstract required;
- current criminal records check required;
- proof of immunization in compliance with policy requirements is mandatory;
- commitment to ongoing training and professional development relevant to job requirements;
- positive attitude and capacity to act as a healthy lifestyle role model.

Salary is per collective agreement
